To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Aſſembly, of the Province of Nova Scotia, or Acadie.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Aſſembly, of your Majeſty's Province of Nova Scotia, met in General Aſſembly, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our humbleſt and moſt fervent Congratulations on the joyful and auſpicious Event of your Majeſty's Royal Marriage with a Princeſs Illuſtrious in Birth, Accompliſhments, and Virtues.

Whatever Happineſs a People could hope for, your Majeſty's Subjects muſt ever enjoy from an Union, wherein the Royal Example may ſo powerfully excite every Sentiment and Diſpoſition productive of the full and permanent Poſſeſſion of human Felicity.

May Providence graciouſly ſucceed the Wiſdom of all your Majeſty's Deſigns and Meaſures; that in making your Subjects the happieſt of People, your Majeſty may ever continue the happieſt of Monarchs.

For and on Behalf of the Council,

For the Houſe of Aſſembly,

Halifax in the Province of Nova Scotia, this 3d Day of May 1762.

The following Addreſs of the Sovereign, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Belfaſt, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Donegal, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Belfaſt, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Birth of the Prince, and the ſafe Delivery of Her Majeſty. With inexpreſſible Pleaſure we reflect upon the Happineſs which muſt accrue to your Majeſty from this great Event; nor can we at the ſame Time forget how nearly we are intereſted, from the Proſpect it affords, of our being governed by Princes of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe.

While the Subjects of moſt other Princes may conſider the Birth of a Prince as an additional Link to their Chains, it is our peculiar Happineſs and Glory, that every Addition to your Royal Line becomes a new Pledge for the Security of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

Theſe inеſtimable Bleſſings we have already uninterruptedly enjoyed for three Generations, under your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Anceſtors, to whom the Laws have been an invariable Rule of Conduct; and the Happineſs of their Subjects the conſtant Aim of all their Actions.

That His Royal Highneſs may long live to imitate your Majeſty's Royal Virtues; and there may never be wanting a Prince deſcended from your Majeſty to ſway the Sceptre of theſe Realms, and to perpetuate the Happineſs we now enjoy to our lateſt Poſterity, ſhall be our conſtant and moſt earneſt Wiſh.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Somerſet, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Somerſet, aſſembled at the Quarter Seſſions, October the Fifth, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

BE pleaſed, moſt gracious Sovereign, to permit us your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, to expreſs our exceeding great Joy on the Birth of the Prince, and the Safety of the Queen. We doubt not but by your Majeſty's Inſtructions and Example, his Royal Highneſs will prove the Support of our Conſtitution in Church and State.

We likewiſe deſire to congratulate your Majeſty on the Important Conqueſt of the Havannah.

May you, Great Sir, and your Poſterity, reap the Benefits of a Juſt, a Glorious, and a Laſting Peace. And may unerring Wiſdom ſo guide your Steps, that the Affections of your People may increaſe with the Number of your Days, and future Ages, with grateful Admiration, commemorate the Happineſs of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Ipſwich in the County of Suffolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Staunton, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty

Commonalty of the Corporation of Ipſwich in the County of Suffolk.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of your ancient Corporation of Ipſwich, in Great Court aſſembled, encouraged by the kind Reception the repeated Congratulations of your faithful People meet with from the Throne, aſpire to the Honour of approaching your Royal Perſon, with the ſame Sentiments of Joy, for this Addition to your Majeſty's Happineſs, and of Gratitude to the Great Author of it.

Among all the happy Occurrences which have diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty's Reign, and which have out-run the Expectations, though not the Wiſhes, of all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, we are juſtly to eſteem this laſt Inſtance of the Divine Goodneſs, the Birth of a Prince, an Heir of his Royal Father's Virtues, and a Pledge of His Love and Regard for the Happineſs of His People.

When we reflect upon the Bleſſings we at preſent enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws, and Liberty, (the happy Conſequences of the Succeſſion of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe to the Throne of theſe Realms) it would be unjuſt and ungrateful not to acknowledge the Goodneſs of Providence, and the wiſe and ſucceſsful Adminiſtration of your Sacred Majeſty acting under it. But what muſt ſtill more endear theſe Bleſſings, and add greatly to the Value of them, is the pleaſing Proſpect of their Continuance in the Perſon of his Royal Highneſs, and the well-grounded Hope, that our Poſterity will have their Part of them.

May therefore the ſame Providence, which has hitherto been ſo indulgent to your Majeſty, continue to watch over you and your Royal Off-ſpring. May he prove the Comfort and Joy of your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, and the Delight of all Mankind, May he live to anſwer the Hopes that are juſtly conceived of him; and, as he grows up to Manhood, may he reflect the Images of his Illuſtrious Parents, in the Characters of Pious, Good, Juſt, and Benevolent.

Given under our Common Seal this Fifteenth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Edward Dering and Thomas Knight, jun. Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, one of His Majeſty's Cinque Ports.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of your ever faithful and loyal Town and Port of New Romney, with unfeigned Zeal and Affection, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to expreſs our ſincere Congratulations on that moſt intereſting and happy Event, the Birth of the Prince of Wales.

We return our warmeſt Thanks to that Being, from whom all Bleſſings flow, for thoſe late Inſtances of His Goodneſs, the Safety of Her Majeſty, and continued Welfare of his Royal Highneſs the Young Prince. Long may he live, under the happy Influence of your Example, to imbibe thoſe Principles, which we feel ſo eſſentially conſtituting our preſent Happineſs, and ſucceed to the Inheritance of thoſe amiable Qualities, that have ſo long, and ſo invariably characterized your Illuſtrious Houſe; that while he imitates the Virtues of his Royal Father, he may reſemble Him too, in the full Enjoyment of that juſteſt Reward, and higheſt Encomium of a virtuous Prince, the Eſteem, Confidence, and Affection of a free People.

Permit us to join, to the Satisfaction we feel on this Increaſe of your domeſtick Felicity, our moſt Cordial Congratulations on the Advancement of your Majeſty's Power Abroad, by the late important Acquiſition and glorious Conqueſt of the Havannah.

May the unſhaken Valour, and unabetted Activity, of your Majeſty's Troops, continue to crown the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils with Succeſs, and teach an inſulting Enemy, how ineffectual is the Rage of an unjuſt War, againſt a People actuated with one and the ſame Spirit, the ſame Love of their King and Country, and ever ſtrenuous to aſſert the Right and Honour of Great Britain.

Given under our Common Seal the Sixteenth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the King's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone in the County of Kent, has been preſented to His Majeſty by William Worthey, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the King's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone in the County of Kent, in Burghmote aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, of your Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, in all Humility, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and, with Joy unfeigned, to offer our Congratulations upon the Birth of the Prince, and the happy Recovery of the Queen.

The Birth of his Royal Highneſs, at the ſame Time that it adds ſo much to your Majeſty's domeſtick Happineſs, has ſuch a neceſſary Tendency to the Strengthening and Perpetuating the Religious and Civil Rights of this Country, that it cannot but fill the Hearts of your grateful Subjects with the higheſt Joy and Satisfaction.

May the Royal Infant be the peculiar Care of Divine Providence: May he be endued with every Great and Princely Qualification; and, following your Majeſty's bright Example, may he, when in Courſe of Time he ſhall come to rule over our Poſterity, reign long and happy in the Hearts and Affections of a free but obedient People.

We muſt humbly beg Leave further to congratulate your Majeſty upon the glorious Succeſs of the Britiſh Arms in the Reduction of the Havannah, with all its Dependencies: A Conqueſt of this vaſt Importance cannot but be productive of the greateſt Advantages to this Nation; and we flatter ourſelves it will facilitate that great and ſalutary Work, a ſafe and honourable Peace.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto cauſed our Seal to be affixed this Firſt Day of October, 1762.

The following Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead in Somerſetſhire, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Thomond and Henry Shiffner, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting:

ing: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead in Somerſetſhire.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Minehead, humbly beg Leave to preſent our unfeigned Joy and Congratulations on the Birth of a Prince, and on the perfect Recovery of your Illuſtrious Conſort. May Heaven preſerve the Life of this your Royal Off-ſpring, this early Pledge of domeſtick Happineſs, to be formed by your Majeſty's Wiſdom and great Example, for the Government of a free and happy People, and, in Maturity of Time, to be the Succeſſor of the Virtues as well as the Throne of his Royal Progenitors.

And as it has pleaſed Divine Providence to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms with ſignal Succeſs, in the late Reduction of the Important City of the Havannah, and its Dependencies, we cannot omit this Opportunity of humbly preſenting our ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty upon this glorious Acquiſition; which, as it muſt add much Luſtre to the Arms of Great Britain, ſo, we truſt, will be a Means of obtaining the deſired Ends of a laſting and honourable Peace.

Dated in Minehead, October 12, 1762.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town and County of Poole, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO accept the ſincere Congratulations of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of your Town and County of Poole, on the Birth of his Royal Highneſs the Prince; an Event, that eminently marks the memorable Day, never to be forgot by the Friends of Liberty.

Warmly attached to your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe, ſenſible of the happy Conſequences of its Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms, we heartily rejoice at the Recovery of the Queen; and earneſtly wiſh long Life and Happineſs to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; and a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign, full of Glory to yourſelf, and Proſperity to your People.

We alſo beg Leave to expreſs our Joy on the important Acquiſition of the Havannah from the Spaniards, and the Recovery of the valuable Iſland of Newfoundland from the French; in which the Unanimity, Valour and Abilities of your Majeſty's Generals and Officers, and the Courage, Intrepidity and Perſeverance of your Majeſty's Forces by Sea and Land, have been ſignally diſplayed; an additional Security and Protection to our Trade and Navigation obtained; and by which your Majeſty's Enemies, convinced of their Inability longer to reſiſt the Progreſs of your Majeſty's victorious Arms, may be brought to agree to equitable and laſting Terms of Peace, honourable to your Majeſty, and advantageous to your Subjects.

Dr. Worloff, the King's Phyſician at Hanover, was expected at Munden every Moment.

M. Dieſbach, the French Commandant at Caſſel, having rejected all the Terms offered him, and perſiſted in holding the Place, though the only Subſiſtence left for the Garriſon was Bread made of Oats, and no great Quantity of that Grain neither remained, the heavy battering Cannon is again returning before the Town, and the Trenches were intended to be opened before it, as we hear, on the 16th Inſtant.
